II. ROLL CALL

On the Roll Call, Council Members present were: Antonetti, Gemian, Gurkovich, Moeller, Ross, Thompson, and Seise

ABSENT: None

Present from Administration: Mayor Runfeldt, Borough Administrator Perry Mayers, CFO Fabiano Mello, and Chris DiLorenzo Borough Attorney

III. MISCELLANEOUS/COUNCIL COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Antonetti: Lights at the lake have taken a beating, but they all seem to be fine, fingers crossed. Plans are already in the works for 2024 including additional decorations to other areas of town, especially Main Street. The 2nd annual home decorating contest was a success. Winners have been notified and posted. The coat drive was a huge success. Coats will be transported to main drop-off of NJCARES.ORG in Morristown this week. NYC Blood Center conducted its 4th drive in Lincoln Park and is very grateful for the Borough's commitment to helping others. Janet and Patti are looking forward to another successful year in the Recreation Department.

Gemian: No report.

Gurkovich: No report.

Moeller: The DPW is cleaning the streets and debris from the flood. There were two (2) water main breaks in the past month. The guys did a great job. Bulk collection started today and will continue for the next two (2) weeks. They are still down one (1) garbage truck which has been down at the dealer for the past three (3) months. Everyone get your snow shovels ready for this weekend. The DPW is ready to plow.

The Health Department has outbreaks that are currently being monitored by the Lincoln Park Care Center for Covid and some other virus. They have a monthly health clinic for children. The next clinic will be held January 9, 2024. 618 Covid tests have been given out in 2023.

Ross: No report.

Thompson: No report.

Seise: No report.
